

ENERGY SOLUTIONS FOR THE CLIMATE CHANGE PROBLEM

In order to properly face the climate-change problem, the tenth conference will have a very open and creative approach combined with a highly effective process. Participants will be invited and inspired to come up with a lot of individual initiatives and to take responsibility for the issues and approaches to be developed and discussed.

Standard formats of international conferences will be used at this event, with the addition of the following key features:

- Future Energy Forum Lab to inspire the participants to create their own workgroups
- Elevator pitch to spotlight projects and products
- World Café to present and discuss different perspectives and strategies
- Best Practice presentations to inform about newest innovations
- Match-making Night to encourage private networking and inspire hands-on ideas

Focus:
Innovation
Disruption
